

“CONFIRMED”

by Rector of Karshi State University

D. Nabiev

02 2023

PROGRAMME

of raising awareness about environmental problems and actions to combat them among university students and the local community

№	Events scheduled	Due date	Responsibility on
1.	Conducting advocacy work for reducing the use of disposal items, primarily plastic bags, through holding presentations and group discussions*.	Regularly	First Vice-Rector for Youth Issues and Spiritual and Educational Affairs, Head of Department of Ecology, Eco-patrol, Tutors
2.	Conducting advocacy work for keeping the area clean and sorting waste (paper, plastic, metal, and mixed) through ecological events and group discussions*.	Regularly	First Vice-Rector for Youth Issues and Spiritual and Educational Affairs, Head of Department of Ecology, Eco-patrol, Tutors
3.	Conducting advocacy work for efficient electricity and water use through group discussions*.	Regularly	First Vice-Rector for Youth Issues and Spiritual and Educational Affairs, Head of Department of Ecology, Tutors
4.	Spreading awareness about global warming issues, including climate change and ice melting, and their negative consequences on people's lives in Uzbekistan and worldwide through presentations and group discussions*.	Regularly	First Vice-Rector for Youth Issues and Spiritual and Educational Affairs, Head of Department of Ecology, Tutors
5.	Conducting advocacy work for forming sustainable eating behavior among students: reducing food waste, natural nutrition, and consuming products of local farmers and dairy producers through presentations, workshops, and group discussions*.	Regularly	First Vice-Rector for Youth Issues and Spiritual and Educational Affairs, Departments of Physiology and Medicine, Tutors.

6.	Spreading awareness about the negative effects of using energy produced from coal and other polluting sources, leading to excessive carbon dioxide emissions, among university students and the local community through community meetings, group discussions*, and presentations.	According to the schedule		First Vice-Rector for Youth Issues and Spiritual and Educational Affairs, Departments of Ecology and Theoretical and Experimental Physics, Tutors
7.	Sharing the university's experience using solar panels with local community and university students and conducting advocacy work for clean and renewable energy among local people and students through community meetings, workshops, group discussions*, and presentations.	According to the schedule		First Vice-Rector for Youth Issues and Spiritual and Educational Affairs, Departments of Ecology and Theoretical and Experimental Physics, Tutors

*Every week, tutors conduct group discussions on relevant and important topics, including sustainable development, which are discussed within the groups of students.